Catholic Charities Disaster Outreach works alongside other community organizations to provide a range of disaster-related services for families and individuals.

Severe weather in Oklahoma can cause much destruction. Many impacted do not have the resources to recover on their own. In their suffering, our Disaster Team will work with families to show them Christ’s merciful love as we help them recover.

(918) 935-2650
disaster@cceok.org
2450 North Harvard Avenue, Tulsa, OK 74115
cceok.org/disaster
Catholic Charities of Eastern Oklahoma offers services for Preparedness, Response and Recovery.

PREPARATION
Catholic Disaster Preparedness Program (CDPP) provides critical information for individuals, groups or communities to help them be better prepared for a disaster event.

RESPONSE
Meeting the immediate needs of survivors with food, emergency assistance and providing emotional and spiritual support.

RECOVERY
Offering case management, connecting survivors with resources to help rebuild their homes and lives.

HELP
for house fire victims.

If you are interested in a preparedness presentation for your group, or should you find yourself in need of help after a natural or man-made disaster, visit our website at cceok.org/disaster and fill out a Disaster Request form, email us at disaster@cceok.org or call our Disaster Line at 918-935-2650.