Our Catholic faith calls us to be of service to others. Let us walk alongside those in Eastern Oklahoma who need our help, and in return we grow in Christ's love.

Because of the generosity of people like you, Catholic Charities served more than 60,000 people in Eastern Oklahoma last year. Our 13 programs serve those in need regardless of their religion, race or creed.

The funding to carry out our mission is provided by our Catholic people, as well as those of other faiths and many charitable organizations. Catholic Charities is not a United Way agency and does not receive support from the Diocesan Development Fund.
