COMING SOON

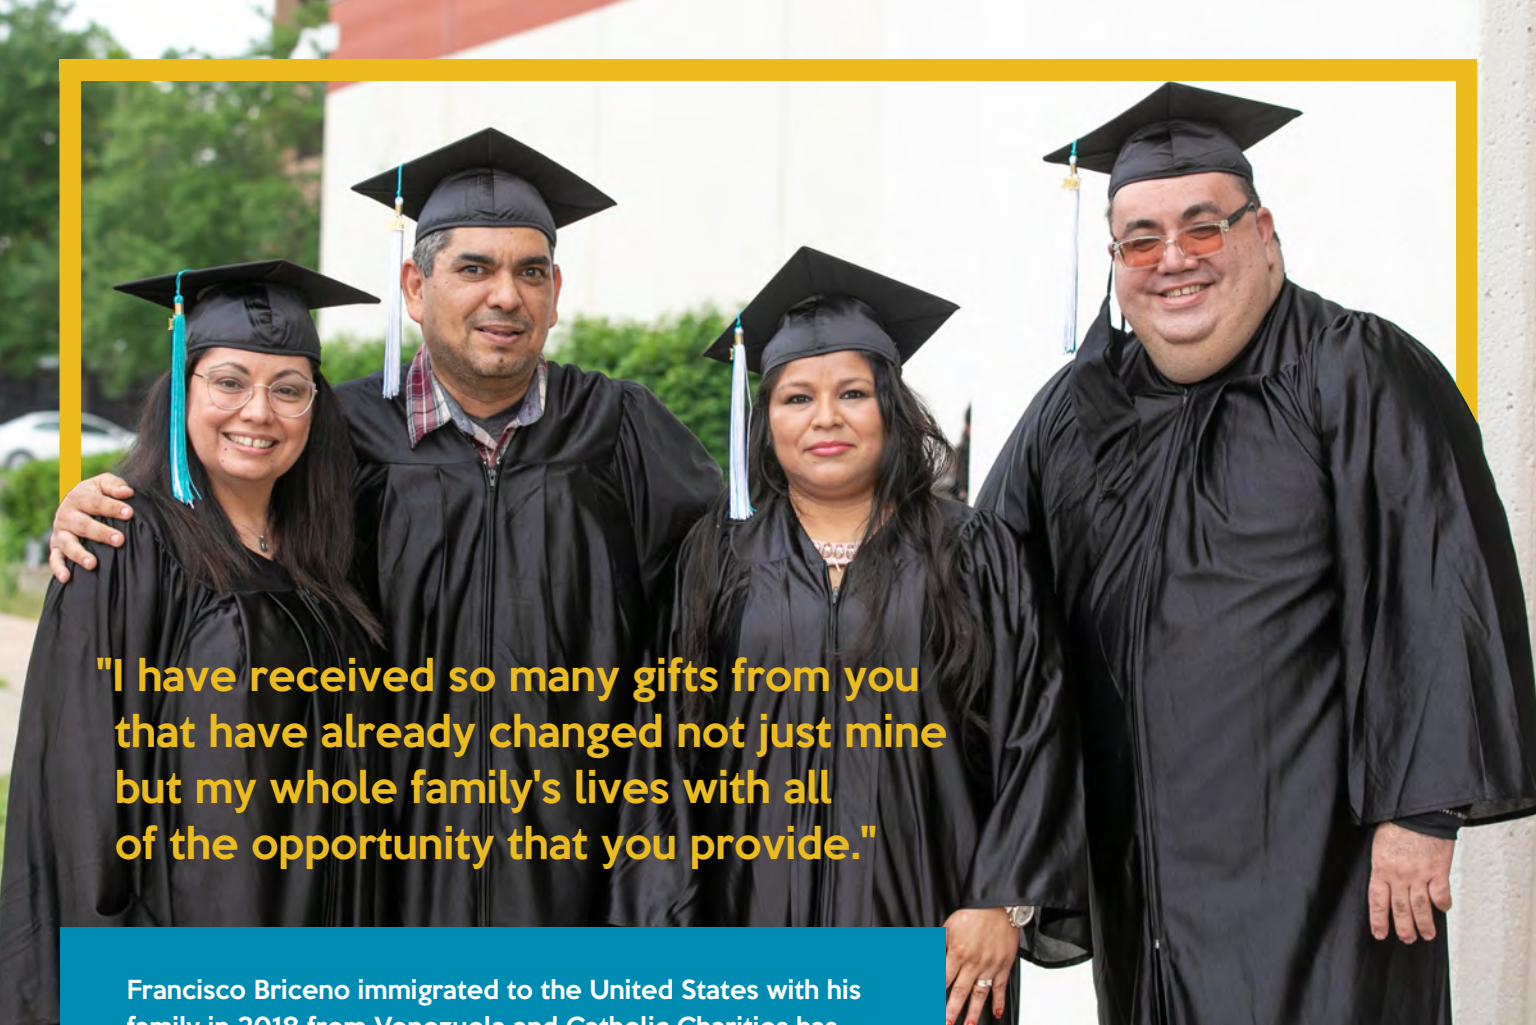

In 2020, the demand for food skyrocketed, and while Catholic Charities rose to meet the need, we realized we must equip our Tulsa campus to serve for years to come.

Thanks to the generous supporters of our Feed My Sheep Campaign, we raised the funds to build our brand new food market to help us work smarter and result in less waste. This client choice market will allow families to choose with dignity the healthy foods they will enjoy.

The Market at Catholic Charities is expected to be operational by winter of 2021.

"I have received so many gifts from you that have already changed not just mine but my whole family's lives with all of the opportunity that you provide."

Francisco Briceno immigrated to the United States with his family in 2018 from Venezuela and Catholic Charities has been a part of their lives ever since. Francisco and his family started their journey through the ESL program to learn and improve their English. Although Francisco and his family were highly educated in Venezuela, with many degrees and master's degrees among them, those credentials were not recognized in the United States. This led the family to enroll in the GED program from which they recently graduated.

Since then, Francisco has been hired as the assistant manager of our Adult Education program. He says, "I am a very strong believer that education is the foundation to change your life."

When Luigi came from Italy to visit Nancy in the U.S., he had an unexpected medical emergency. Due to the necessary recovery time extending beyond his tourism visa, Luigi sought the help of Catholic Charities Immigration Legal Services to maintain legal status while he recovered.

"Nonna had a list of steps I needed to go through to help Luigi through the immigration process. It was an adventure! We could not have done it without the help of Catholic Charities. "

2020 VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Kim Owen

For Kim Owen, problem-solving, innovating and creating are second nature. Retiring as the Vice President of Human Resources at QuikTrip as well as managing rodeos and running a ranch with her husband, Kim is no stranger to leadership. Her unique background was the key to success when Catholic Charities partnered with the USDA Farmers to Families Food Box Program. Like many other people in America in 2020, her world began to shift as rodeos canceled, life changed and God put her on a new path.

What started as simple volunteer work, filling out invoices and paperwork for the Farmers to Families program, quickly became a full-time mission for Kim. In May of 2020, when food insecurity was high, Kim was thrown into a role she never expected.

Catholic Charities' partnership with Farmers to Families provided 7.86 million pounds of food in one year in Eastern Oklahoma alone! With eighteen distribution sites, Kim oversaw the entire project and dealt with the many issues that arose. She worked tirelessly to put in calls for drivers, coordinating with different distribution locations and local managers and even driving food to places herself in a neighbor's cattle trailer.

Kim credits the help of hundreds of volunteers and divine help from God who made it all possible. "We've seen so many people who made things happen and God was the Creator of it all," Owen said.

Her hard work and dedication earned her the title of CCEOK Volunteer of the Year for 2020!
