CATHOLIC Eastern Oklahoma
CHARITIES | Love
Changing Lives.

We couldn't do this without you!

As we reflect on the past year, we are humbled and grateful for the unwavering support of our donors and the incredible dedication of our volunteers. Your gifts of time, talent and treasure have been nothing short of transformative, and they have propelled our mission to be Christ's merciful love to those who suffer.

In this annual impact report, we are excited to share some remarkable achievements from the past year that were made possible by your generosity. Together we lift people up - we prevent homelessness - we chart a future full of hope.

In the words of Pope Francis, "To love God and neighbor is not something abstract, but profoundly concrete: it means seeing in every person the face of the Lord to be served, to serve Him concretely."

We are deeply grateful for your commitment to our mission and the essential role you play in our efforts to be a beacon of hope, compassion, and mercy in Eastern Oklahoma. We could not do it without you.

God bless you.

Catholic Charities USA Volunteer of the Year

The Coulon Family

Out of 300,000 volunteers from across the U.S., Catholic Charities of Eastern Oklahoma was excited to announce that Tulsa's Trang Coulon was selected as Catholic Charities USA 2023 Volunteer of the Year!

Trang has served at CCEOK since 2014 and maintains a lead role in The Market - volunteering more than 500 hours last year alone! Trang and her husband, Tim, along with their children, created the Matthew:25 Closet at Catholic Charities - providing socks, hats, gloves, small toiletries and other items to homeless people in need.

"Our mission at Catholic Charities is carried out by dedicated volunteers who seek Christ in the poor," said Deacon Kevin Sartorius, CEO of Catholic Charities of Eastern Oklahoma. "This is so evident in the humble service provided by Trang. It is a blessing that we are able to work alongside her."

Congratulations also to Mickey Butler, who was one of five Volunteer of the Year finalists!

Your gift. Their new life.

In May 2023, Catholic Charities Pregnancy Care clinic formed a partnership with Ascension St. John to continue the quality service our clients deserve, including free pregnancy testing, prenatal appointments, ultrasounds and postnatal follow up. Our full-time case worker also ensures mothers are provided guidance and referrals to other necessary programs.

Your gift. Suprena's smile.

"It's my feeling that no one should ever have to be without medical care because of the dental care that they need." - Dr. Jennifer Cook

After struggling with lupus and kidney disease for 18 years, Suprena found herself in need of a kidney transplant. She had done everything possible to get on the kidney transplant donor list, including losing 80 pounds, but her doctors told her that unless she had extensive dental work, there was no way she would get on the list for a life-saving kidney transplant. She was already working two jobs to make ends meet for all her other medical and life expenses and paying for dental work was out of the question. Suprena's luck was about to change - and her faith was soon to be restored when she was referred to CCEOK's Dental Care program.

Your gift. Their opportunity.

"By being present, by being accepting and open, and just treating them like normal people, we are allowing them to grow and to have opportunities."

- Sr. Catherine Martinez

Oklahoma State University and Catholic Charities are working together to help women inside the Payne County Jail get their high school diplomas.

Oklahoma State professors teach the courses and then Catholic Charities' Sr. Catherine Martinez goes into the jail to help with testing.

Your gift. Their peace.

“Gate of heaven” could not be a more appropriate meaning for a place that has been a final home for the more than 1,700 people since its opening in January of 2017. Porta Caeli House is a peaceful setting that provides a home to those under hospice care, welcoming spaces for families to be with their loved ones, meals in a shared dining room, and a caring staff who serve as family to many who have no one else to be with them in this time. There is no charge for care.

PORTA CAELI HOUSE

Compassionate end-of-life care when dying at home is not an option

279 GUESTS

Your gift. Lakeisha's path.

MADONNA HOUSE

Encouraging independence for pregnant women and their babies

ST. ELIZABETH LODGE

Stabilizing homeless mothers and their children

“I love it here, The staff is loving and kind and is teaching me all kinds of new tools to live a new way of life.” - Lakeisha

Just months ago, Lakeisha was pregnant and living in a tent. Thankfully, she found her way to Madonna House. Now that her daughter, Journey, is here, Lakeisha is working toward a stable life for herself and her baby. She will begin a job as a parent mentor at DHS in January. With the guidance of the Transitional Living staff at Catholic Charities, she continues to work toward breaking the cycle of generational trauma.

received disaster case management to recover from fires, freezes, floods, and tornadoes

442 FAMILIES

received disaster preparedness training

Your gift. Gerald's restoration.

After a fire recently destroyed his home, Turley resident Gerald sought help. "Catholic Charities has pulled together resources to help us live more comfortably while we figure out our next steps in restoring our life."

Gerald's daughter, Lori, said, "We can't express enough how much it means. It definitely gives you hope to know that somebody out there is willing to not judge you at all and just say, 'hey, I think we can help you.'"

See Gerald & Lori's story on our video at ccek.org/video

DISASTER OUTREACH

Providing a range of services for individuals and families struck by natural disasters and house fires

Your gift. Their healing.

"I've struggled for years to deal with trauma from my childhood which has limited my life in many ways. Grief to Grace was a breakthrough for me in helping me move through these painful experiences and come out on the other side with a renewed relationship with God."

This is just one of many testimonies from the first five-day Grief to Grace retreat. The retreat helps restore hope to those suffering from abuse.

HEALING MINISTRIES

Facilitating healing for those suffering from abuse or after an abortion

Having the opportunity to give a legacy gift to CCEOK allows us to be a part of the church's stewardship mission within our own community, living out the tenets of our faith through an organization we know and trust.

Over the years, we've seen how Catholic Charities makes a difference in the lives of both volunteers and the people they serve. We want to be a part of extending Christ's love to others through the works of mercy for years to come.

As a service for our donors, Catholic Charities provides complimentary and confidential charitable estate planning services.

Contact Laurie Gero at 918-508-7116 or lgero@cceok.org for more information.

Have you named Catholic Charities in your will or estate plan? Let us know so we can include you in our Caritas Christi Society.
